DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments and amendments, filed 6/11/2003, have been fully considered and reviewed by the examiner. In light of the amendments, the rejections to the claims have been withdrawn by the examiner. A new grounds of rejection follows. Claims 1-14 are pending.

The applicant's arguments are moot in light of the new grounds of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-3, 9, and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hayashi et al. in view of Solayappan et al. and Tisone.

Hayashi et al. and Solayappan et al. are applied here for the same reasons as given in paragraph 4 of the previous office action. Hayashi et al. and Solayappan et al. do not teach that solution and gas are mixed in the nozzle, atomized in the nozzle, and discharged into the chamber. Tisone teaches dispensing a liquid onto a substrate by atomization of the liquid, where the liquid and atomizing gas are mixed in a two-fluid nozzle, atomized in the nozzle, and discharged out of the nozzle and onto the substrate (Col. 5, lines 10-20). It would have been an obvious modification of the Hayashi et al. and Solayappan et al. process to use the atomization nozzle of Tisone to dispense the solution into the coating chamber of Hayashi et al., with the expectation of providing the desired atomized dispensing/deposition of the coating solution of Hayashi et al. and Solayappan et al., since it is shown by Tisone that such an atomizing nozzle is conventionally used for the atomization and dispensing of liquids onto a substrate surface, which is the desire of Hayashi et al.

4. Claims 4-8 and 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hayashi et al., Solayappan et al., and Tisone, as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Ogi et al.

Hayashi et al., Solayappan et al., Tisone, and Ogi et al. are applied here for the same reasons as given above and in paragraph 5 of the previous office action.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event,

• Art Unit: 1762

however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
